

NUMEROLOGY FOR REAL ESTATE

1

Independence

Homes with this energy will be attractive to leaders, lone-wolves and people seeking a fresh start. Consider focusing your efforts on selling to a driven, career-oriented type.

2

Duality

The number two brings to mind the balance of dual energy and couples. You may want to make these homes attractive to couples with romantic energy.

3

Creativity

Three is inspirational and expressive. A home with this energy can be a good fit for artists, writers, musicians, etc. Consider adding some nice art and grouping decor in threes.

4

Grounding

If your address adds up to four, it emphasizes a sense of stability. Make the home a comfortable retreat with a calm, earthy ambiance.

5

Adventure

Five has an active, ambitious energy about it. A world traveler may find this home particularly attractive. You'll want to emphasize a home's access to fun activities.

6

Service to Others

People who focus their energy on helping others may feel particularly attracted to the number six. Make this home feel like a good place for hosting company.

7

Spirituality

Seven is a divine number and is often appreciated by those with a spiritual lifestyle. You may find luck selling this house by creating a non-specific spiritual ambiance.

8

Wealth

Eight has a tradition of signifying monetary luck, power and long-term investment. You can play up this association by staging the house with finer commodities.

9

The Ultimate Number

Nine is said to be the best number for real estate. There should be a little something for everyone to like in a home with this number.

DENVER METRO
ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

www.dmarealtors.com